

K.L.P Entertainment Music Group

A rising force in modern music culture — built on creativity, innovation, and artist development excellence.

About The Company

K.L.P Entertainment Music Group stands as a modern independent powerhouse rooted in creativity, innovation, and a deep commitment to artist growth. Founded and led by CEO Kennedy Lucas Patterson, the company has grown into a multifaceted music organization focused on producing high-quality music while nurturing an artistic community driven by authenticity and vision.

Strategic leadership from President Tairus Lester strengthens operations across creative and business divisions. Together, leadership has shaped a brand defined by opportunity, excellence, and forward-thinking culture.

Artist & Talent Development

The company supports both emerging and established artists across multiple genres. K.L.P Entertainment focuses on sustainable careers through mentorship, branding development, songwriting support, vocal coaching, performance training, and long-term artistic strategy.

Music Production & Creative Team

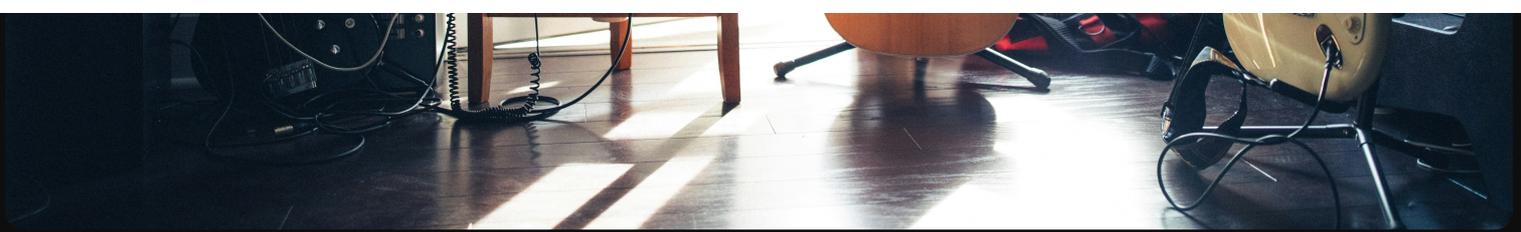

Producers, engineers, and creatives collaborate to craft original records blending modern sound design with timeless musicality. From singles to full albums and custom compositions, every project reflects professional-grade quality and a distinctive creative identity.

Recording Studios

Studio A — professional vocal tracking, mixing, and production environment.

Studio B — creative collaboration space with modern acoustics and equipment.

Corporate Offices

Our offices serve as the strategic and creative hub for artist development, business operations, and brand expansion.

A&R Leadership

Talent discovery and development are guided by A&R leaders Kennedy Lucas Patterson, Monica Grey, and Simone Teags. Their expertise ensures every artist project aligns with both artistic integrity and industry strategy.
